Well-being

Northern Alsace a region to explore

Northern Alsace is a region where nature is protected, both wild and welcoming, one that is firmly anchored in Alsatian tradition and offers many and varied pleasures: history, sport, gastronomic cuisine, well-being, amazing countryside....

If you want to find out more about the traditions and history of Alsace, relax with your family, expend some energy, this map will help you to organise a stay that will delight all ages.

On the front, you will find details about the numerous things there are to do and the many sights not to be missed in Northern Alsace. On the back, a map shows all the major tourist sites as well as the routes to take by car, bike and public transport.

And so you will be able to make up your own itinerary to suite your tastes and interests.

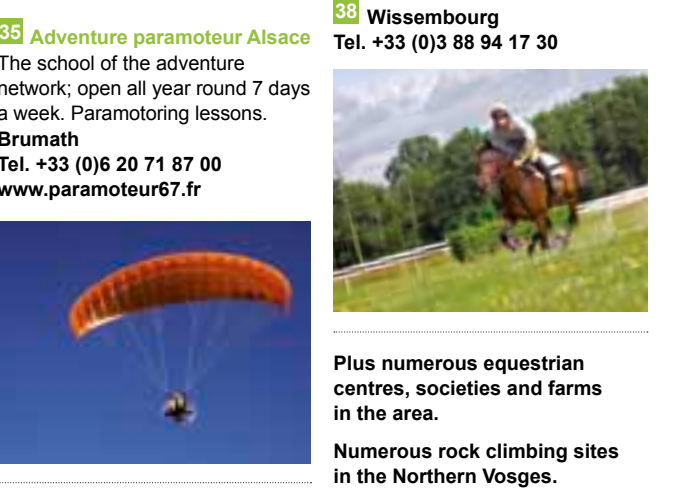

Have a great time in Northern Alsace!

Nature and leisure activities

The perfect place for a family holiday, Northern Alsace is a dream destination for young and old alike.

With a wide selection of original sports and leisure facilities, Northern Alsace is also an immense adventure playground! Take advantage of your stay to expend all that pent-up energy!

Fishing and fly-fishing
Drained by numerous watercourses converging towards the Rhine, Northern Alsace offers many opportunities to devote oneself to fishing. Whether it be trout in the Lauter, carps in gravel pits or carpiores in the Rhine, fishing enthusiasts will be delighted! The numerous ponds and small rivers offer as well to beginners the best environment to capture their first fishes.
